ALL SCHOOL PLAY

THE DIARY OF ANNE FRANK

Let's stop a minute and look at the All School Play, THE DIARY OF ANNE FRANK by Frances Goodrich and Albert Hackett; the WC; the Green Police; the unusual stage setting; the cat lapping up milk; a potato rolling off the stage; the joyous sounds of a Hannakuh song and the sounds which sent fear through each member of the Jewish Frank family and the rest of the people who lived in the warehouse attic in Amsterdam for three years during World War II.

The cast was as follows;

Mr. Frank	Rick Dubow
Miep	Mary Mosier
Mrs. Van Daan	Candy Hesch
Mr. Van Daan	John Malcolm
Peter	Geoffrey Starin
Anne	Roxi Meschke
Mrs. Frank	Patty Johnson
Margot	Holly Ryan
Mr. Kralin	Dave Carlson
Mr. Dassel	Jim Dubow

STUDENT COUNCIL

Let's stop a minute and listen to an announcement, "Student Council will meet in the teacher's section of the cafeteria at 9:45 today." An every day announcement, but the accomplishments of the council were more than normal. The student council had charge of pep fests, read the announcements, and in general took and applied advice of students on how to improve our school. Mr. Goodrich was the Student Council adviser.

ANNUAL STAFF

Let's stop a minute at the publications room and look at the annual being produced; editors doing their thing to make an original 1970 Flyer Annual; laying out pages and looking at pictures; and deciding how to make THIS annual one to look back on and recall marvelous memories of a great year---1970. Debbie Felix was the Editor and the rest of the editors are as follows: Art, Holly Ryan; Photo, Jackie Anderson; Senior Section, Sherry Nieman; Faculty, Claudia Berguson; Classes, Audrey Kaiser; Activities, Irene Jarosh; Sports, Mary Severson; Copy, Laurie Sandberg; Business, Jackie Ringwelski; Typists, Marci Boser, Sandy Plettl, and Gloria Poeppel.

C O M E T 'S

Let's stop a minute and look at the Comet's Tale reporters hustling and bustling to get their assignments in on time, the editors laying out the dummy, and Miss Schwartz, the advisor, patiently waiting for the outcome of the next Comet's Tale. There were eight big issues this year and each one was more interesting than the last.

Craig, we had a lot of fun last summer just talking. I didn't talk to you much this year. Be a great scientist someday and invent a sex appeal pill.

Speech---Miles of everlasting bus rides, guessing the correct number of little piggies, laughing and enjoying life with Mr. Martin-and all the relaxing moments speakers enjoy; after many long, hard hours of drilling and practicing.

It looks like I've got a lot of love. Got a lot of love.

O F F I C E R S

Let's stop for a moment and recall all the AFS friends our school made on our AFS weekend-

- the pot luck supper and the Christmas party.
- the selling of tags on an extremely cold day.
- and also the cheery smile Edna had for everyone, everyday.

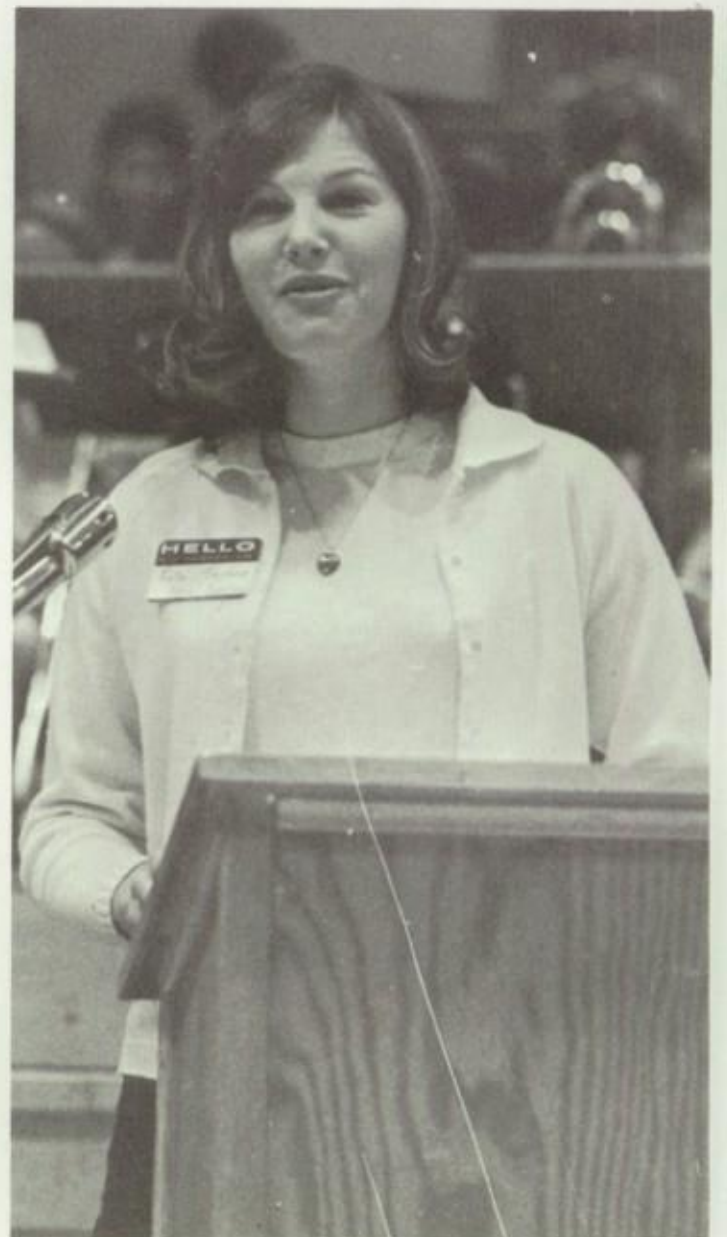

Edna is the 10th foreign student brought to LFSHS; and the AFS motto: "Walk together, talk together, O ye peoples of the earth. Then and only then shall ye have peace," begins to shine clearly as people throughout the world begin to understand one another.

OUR A.F.S. STUDENT

Dear friends,

It is really hard for me to put in words my feelings towards Americans and the United States!

When I first came here I use to think that all Americans were kind of crazy, but very, very friendly. I never felt like an outsider here! Nobody ever let me feel like that! Since the beginning, everybody tried to make me feel at home and I remember those first days when I couldn't understand what people were saying because everybody spoke so fast, so I use to smile all the time and pretend I was understanding what was going on when I never knew what they were talking about! That was really funny!

This is another thing about Americans, they have a terrific sense of humor. They seem to try to forget their problems by telling jokes or just making fun of something!

And that lunch line! That was really something else! I don't even know how many times I was sent back to the end of the line when some teacher caught me getting "heads" from somebody!

Being called by "Ed" was really a surprise for me, but Americans are always finding nicknames for everybody. Now when someone calls me Ed, it gives me a very nice feeling that I belong to here, that I am just one of them and I like this feeling very, very much.

Homecoming was something just fantastic, an experience that I will never forget! Now I'm looking forward to "Prom" that I know is going to be lots of fun as everything else is here.

I don't think I'll ever be able to thank the A.F.S. for giving me this opportunity to make so many friends and get to know so many people. When I go back to Brazil and somebody asks me about these days, I will always say, "those were the days!" I'll never forget our friendly Little Falls with all the crazy Americans. . . . and Polacks, too!

From your Brazilian friend
with love,

Edna

FTA

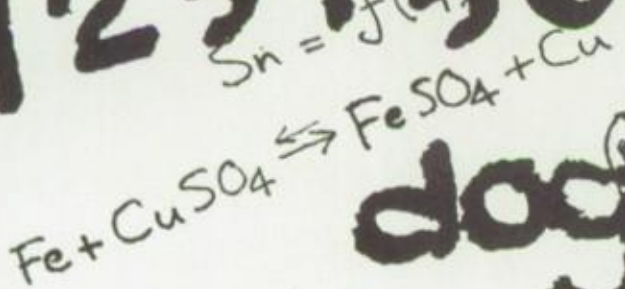

Let's stop and ponder on the thought that these students, who have learned their A,B,C's and their 1,2,3's will soon be the Future Teachers of America!! Mr. Groth, was their advisor, and the FTA highlight was student teaching at Lindbergh School.

$$\int_0^4 \frac{1}{4} x^2 dx = 8 - (4)(6) = \frac{1}{12} 4^3 - \frac{1}{12} 0^3 = \frac{64}{12} = \frac{16}{3}$$

The Photo Club deserves an extra round of applause as their job required much patience and integrity -- They must cope with the Annual Staff editors who are constantly demanding more pictures. They faithfully took all of our pictures -- so let's give them a big hand. Thanks Photo Club!

Boys beware! These good looking Halloween spooks are Future Homemakers of America.

A Halloween party was part of their program this year, as planning and preparing for parties is part of homemaking.

The club also had other homemaking related projects and shared in the fun of a Christmas party and dance with the FFA.

A black and white photograph of three young women walking in front of a large, stylized mural. The mural features a woman's face and the text "AMERICA'S GO". The woman in the foreground is holding a bottle of "AMERICAN WATER" and a book. The woman in the middle is holding a book. The woman on the left is wearing a dark jacket and a skirt. The mural also includes a checkered pattern and a bottle of "AMERICAN WATER".

HOWE COMING

Let us pause for a moment at Homecoming 1970-

- the shop rooms; students laughing, talking, and working.
- the bonfire; blistering and burning.
- the coronation; exciting and breathtaking.
- the parade; a covered wagon and a casket.
- the game; the slogan; RIP the Redskins.
- the Queen: Donna Hayes.
- the dance; loud and moving ... all too soon over.

For some it was the first, for others it was the last; but for all Homecoming-1970 was utterly splendid, truly fantastic, and a memory to be cherished always.

Dear Craig
I've spent almost all this year on spending time with you
from 0d 25
we have two years
together
the next year
maybe we'll be homecoming pictures
in a year
we'll have a year annual you'll leave a little love

A whole stack full of these pictures
house a couple weeks after we were going together
you probly don't even remember!

P.S. maybe you've changed a little but you still don't love me
when you gave me a bit of blood
I remember when I bit you down to the bone

as you can tell
i'm going to be a nurse

Like some low and mournful spell, we wisper that sad word, "farewell."
--P. Benjamin

Craig - feel why
to a real why
in math & science & English & Latin & etc.
I've been great knowing you this year - you're a great kid
Kurt

It's
been nice hunt,
with you, Dan,
Mark, and some
in something in we get together in classes. Next year.
Pat. Take your tennis
Hope to see you. easy this around
Mark

Craig,

Its been fun knowing you,
a lotta good laughs in later's (ka-ka). Take it easy on Pat and have fun!

Good Luck!

Mary
